

HANLY IS FOR INTERVENTION

Prohibition Candidate Says He Would Intervene Promptly in Mexico.

St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 5.—J. Frank Hanly, prohibition candidate for president, is for intervention in Mexico as a solution of that country's disturbances. He declared in an address here Wednesday night he would, if elected, intervene promptly and thoroughly in Mexico and he challenged both Charles E. Hughes and Woodrow Wilson for a statement of their position in the matter.

"I believe intervention by the government of the United States is inevitable and if I were elected president and conditions were as they now are," Hanly said, "and our present anomalous relations to Mexican affairs were still existent, I would intervene promptly and decisively immediately upon my inauguration and assumption of authority and pause not until stable and orderly government was established there and the good name and self respect of the United States restored."

"I would intervene as we intervened in Cuba and as we have intervened in Haiti and San Domingo; intervene, not in a spirit of aggression for our own aggrandizement, either of wealth or territory, not for conquest or as a conqueror, but as a friend and neighbor."

"I would do that—first making my purpose clear and there would be no vacillation, no hesitancy."

Should Have Recognized Huerta.

Preceding his declaration for intervention, Hanly said Wilson had erred in not recognizing Huerta, in sending troops to Veracruz, and across the border in a "purposeless man hunt" and in holding them on the border now.

"Watchful waiting under Charles E. Hughes," Hanly declared, "would be no better than watchful waiting under Woodrow Wilson."

Don't Suffer From Piles

Send For Free Trial Treatment

No matter how long or how bad—go to your druggist today and get a box of Pyramid Pile Treatment. It will give relief, and a single box often cures. A trial package mailed free in plain wrapper if you send us coupon below.

The Pyramid Smile From a Single Trial.

will give relief, and a single box often cures. A trial package mailed free in plain wrapper if you send us coupon below.

FREE SAMPLE COUPON

Pyramid Drug Company, 800 Pyramid Bldg., Marshall, Mich.

Kindly send me a free sample of Pyramid Pile Treatment, in plain wrapper.

Name

Street

City

State

City

State

City

State

City

State

City

State

City

State

City

State

City

State

City

State

City

State

City

State

City

State

City

State

City

State

City

State

City

State

City

State

City

State

City

State

City

State

City

State

City

State

City

COMMITTEE TO DECIDE QUESTION

Republican May Get Railroad Commissionership as Result of Tangle.

Austin, Tex., Oct. 5.—It is now up to the state Democratic executive committee to decide who shall be the Democratic nominee for railroad commissioner to fill the place caused by the death of Judge W. D. Williams. It is now generally conceded that the appointment of Charles E. Hurdleston by governor Ferguson to succeed Judge Williams will expire after the next general election, which is just a little over one month from now. Legal authorities here point to Article 28, section 15 of the state constitution to sustain the position that when such vacancies occur the governor shall appoint a successor who shall serve until the next general election.

Robbins Makes Protest.

While it is not known what action the committee will take in the premises, it is generally believed in political circles here that the committee will select Mr. Hurdleston as the nominee and have his name placed on the official ballot.

John W. Robbins of Austin, who was a candidate for railroad commissioner in the Democratic primaries last July, and defeated by chairman Allison Mayfield, of the commission, contends that the governor should have issued a proclamation calling for an election of railroad commissioner and leave the field clear for any candidate who desired to make the race.

May Elect Republican.

In the event it is decided to leave the task of voting for a candidate for railroad commissioner open to the voters and let them write the names they prefer for this office, Mr. Robbins sees another danger and that is, that the people generally will not take the trouble to write the names down, consequently there will be comparatively few votes cast, while on the other hand the name of the Republican candidate will be printed on the official ballot, and he will receive the full Republican vote which is about 75,000 in Texas, and this may result in the election of a Republican for railroad commissioner of Texas.

REPUBLICAN CANDIDATE FOR GOVERNOR ROASTS FERGUSON

Hillsboro, Tex., Oct. 5.—R. B. Creager, candidate for governor on the Republican ticket, spoke to a large audience at the Hillsboro fair yesterday afternoon.

He condemned the growing tendency to create new offices in the building of personal political machines and the large sums expended by officials for traveling expenses.

Mr. Creager said that the money expended by Gov. Ferguson and his assistant attorney general on a "junketing trip" to New York and Washington was without warrant of law. "If," he said, "Mr. Ferguson can spend $500 for a trip for himself and Mr. McDonald to New York, he can spend $500 to take himself and party on a trip around the world."

"What Texas needs," he declared, "is not so much new legislation, as an intelligent, economical and, above all, an honest and impartial administration of the laws already on her statute books."

TAFT ATTACKS POLICIES OF THE ADMINISTRATION

Trenton, N. J., Oct. 5.—William H. Taft here Wednesday night attacked the Democratic party's fiscal policy as extravagant; attacked its free trade tariff, its claim to credit for prosperity and also its foreign policy.

"Corporations and trade unions at necessities of modern economic society," said Mr. Taft. "The power, they acquire, however, may tempt to serious abuse and they have done so. Hence the anti-trust law and the interstate commerce. Unwise subservience of Democrats to labor finds its crowning instance in Mr. Wilson's dealing with the threatened strike of the railroad brotherhood. It was of the greatest national humility to which the people of this country have been subjected."

"Mr. Wilson cannot shift blame for his blunders in Mexico. He had a clean slate upon which to write when he came in."

WOMEN CAMPAIGNERS ARE HEARD BY LARGE CROWDS

Toledo, Ohio, Oct. 5.—Large crowds here Wednesday attended several meetings conducted by 25 New York women campaigning for Charles E. Hughes. They left for Detroit at night.

At a local automobile factory, Miss Frances Kellor, of New York, organizer of the women's expedition, was met by a hostile crowd of Socialists and Democrats. Scarcely had she started to speak on the labor record of Mr. Hughes when her voice was nearly drowned out by cheers for president Wilson.

"How about the Danbury hatters?" she asked.

"Mr. Hughes," she replied, "was not on the supreme bench when the first decision was rendered, and in 1911 when the case came up again, the court's decision was only on the law in the case and not on its merits."

SAYS WILSON AVOIDED DEATH OF YOUNG AMERICANS

Green Bay, Wis., Oct. 5.—By preventing intervention in Mexico, president Wilson avoided the slaughter of hundreds of America's best young men, vice-president Marshall said here Wednesday night in a campaign speech. He said time would justify the president's policy in Mexico.

Refers to Road Work.

Bursum declared that the road funds have been spent more with a view of influencing voters than of building real highways.

"Two years ago, only a short time before election," he said, "nearly a hundred men were put to work on the road near the precinct of Alameda, in Bernalillo county. Besides this a pardon was promised to an Alameda man, who was then serving a term in the penitentiary, provided the precinct should register."

R. C. Hernandez, candidate for representative, to the national issues. He declared he is heartily in favor of suffrage for women.

BURSOM AND HERNANDEZ ADDRESS 1000 AT RATON

By GUTHRIE SMITH.

Raton, N. M., Oct. 5.—Coerting a big number wagon into a platform, E. O. Bursum, Republican candidate for governor, and R. C. Hernandez, candidate for representative in congress, yesterday addressed a thousand people who had gathered together to attend the San Francisco fiesta, which the Santa

What Does Old Age Mean to You?

Does it mean a period of well-earned rest, in a home of your own, with an income that will make you independent of your family—a freedom from financial worry and fears for the future?

Or does it mean a termination of your income, and a forced dependence on your family,—a life of apprehension and uneasiness?

Invest Now!

Every day we all grow older—we all come a little closer to the end of an active life. With retirement from business comes a cessation of income—unless you use your capital skilfully and wisely now.

With a trifling expenditure each month, you can be sure of some property of your own—perhaps a little home, perhaps some unimproved real estate that, by increasing in value, will insure your future independence.

Or you might buy houses and, by renting them at the usual rates, have a steady and substantial living assured you. Under any circumstances, the wisest thing you can do is to make such investments as will be safe from future loss, and at the same time will be profitable.

You Will Never Be Younger

But time passes quickly. You may say, "Well, I'll do that, some day; but I'm young yet; there's no hurry."

Isn't there?

Will you ever be in a better condition to invest than you are now?

You don't know what is going to happen to morrow morning, to say nothing of years from now. Your business may collapse, you may lose your life, or be incapacitated for business in any one of a thousand different ways.

Will El Paso ever offer a better field for investment than it does now?

Property is now at as low a price as it will ever be; yet we have shown, repeatedly, by facts and statistics that the present prices are bound to increase—and to increase very rapidly.

Even if you do not care to invest in real estate, surely it is the part of wisdom to buy a home now, while you can—then your family will be sure of at least a place to live, if anything should happen to you.

Invest now.

Davis Bros.

Fisk-Ramsey Realty Co.

Leavell & Sherman

James L. Marr & Co.

Mayfield Bldg. & Imp. Co. Anderson-Filler Inv. Co.

Newman Investment Co. W. H. Austin

Perry-Kirkpatrick & Co. Broaddus & LeBaron

Horace B. Stevens

A. P. Coles & Bros.

BURSUM SCORES

Charges Bank and Road Work Used for Political Purposes.

By GUTHRIE SMITH.

Santa Fe, N. M., Oct. 5.—Avoiding all personalities, but making a vigorous arraignment of the Democratic state administration in efficiency, Holm O. Bursum, Republican candidate for governor, addressed an audience which overflowed the court house here. Col. Jose D. Serna served as interpreter.

With reference to the failure of the First State bank at Las Cruces, Mr. Bursum charged that the money of hard working men and women, who were the depositors, was used "to pay the political debts of the administration."

Refers to Road Work.

Bursum declared that the road funds have been spent more with a view of influencing voters than of building real highways.

"Two years ago, only a short time before election," he said, "nearly a hundred men were put to work on the road near the precinct of Alameda, in Bernalillo county. Besides this a pardon was promised to an Alameda man, who was then serving a term in the penitentiary, provided the precinct should register."

R. C. Hernandez, candidate for representative, to the national issues. He declared he is heartily in favor of suffrage for women.

BURSOM AND HERNANDEZ ADDRESS 1000 AT RATON

By GUTHRIE SMITH.

Raton, N. M., Oct. 5.—Coerting a big number wagon into a platform, E. O. Bursum, Republican candidate for governor, and R. C. Hernandez, candidate for representative in congress, yesterday addressed a thousand people who had gathered together to attend the San Francisco fiesta, which the Santa

M'DONALD POLICY

Clara Indians held at Nambé, in the northern part of Santa Fe county. Both spoke in Spanish and used no interpreter. Bursum continued to advocate broad policies as to good roads and better schools, while Hernandez stuck in the main to the national issues.

Clara Indians held at Nambé, in the northern part of Santa Fe county. Both spoke in Spanish and used no interpreter. Bursum continued to advocate broad policies as to good roads and better schools, while Hernandez stuck in the main to the national issues.

Clara Indians held at Nambé, in the northern part of Santa Fe county. Both spoke in Spanish and used no interpreter. Bursum continued to advocate broad policies as to good roads and better schools, while Hernandez stuck in the main to the national issues.

Clara Indians held at Nambé, in the northern part of Santa Fe county. Both spoke in Spanish and used no interpreter. Bursum continued to advocate broad policies as to good roads and better schools, while Hernandez stuck in the main to the national issues.

Clara Indians held at Nambé, in the northern part of Santa Fe county. Both spoke in Spanish and used no interpreter. Bursum continued to advocate broad policies as to good roads and better schools, while Hernandez stuck in the main to the national issues.

Clara Indians held at Nambé, in the northern part of Santa Fe county. Both spoke in Spanish and used no interpreter. Bursum continued to advocate broad policies as to good roads and better schools, while Hernandez stuck in the main to the national issues.

Clara Indians held at Nambé, in the northern part of Santa Fe county. Both spoke in Spanish and used no interpreter. Bursum continued to advocate broad policies as to good roads and better schools, while Hernandez stuck in the main to the national issues.

Clara Indians held at Nambé, in the northern part of Santa Fe county. Both spoke in Spanish and used no interpreter. Bursum continued to advocate broad policies as to good roads and better schools, while Hernandez stuck in the main to the national issues.

Clara Indians held at Nambé, in the northern part of Santa Fe county. Both spoke in Spanish and used no interpreter. Bursum continued to advocate broad policies as to good roads and better schools, while Hernandez stuck in the main to the national issues.

Clara Indians held at Nambé, in the northern part of Santa Fe county. Both spoke in Spanish and used no interpreter. Bursum continued to advocate broad policies as to good roads and better schools, while Hernandez stuck in the main to the national issues.

Clara Indians held at Nambé, in the northern part of Santa Fe county. Both spoke in Spanish and used no interpreter. Bursum continued to advocate broad policies as to good roads and better schools, while Hernandez stuck in the main to the national issues.

Clara Indians held at Nambé, in the northern part of Santa Fe county. Both spoke in Spanish and used no interpreter. Bursum continued to advocate broad policies as to good roads and better schools, while Hernandez stuck in the main to the national issues.

Clara Indians held at Nambé, in the northern part of Santa Fe county. Both spoke in Spanish and used no interpreter. Bursum continued to advocate broad policies as to good roads and better schools, while Hernandez stuck in the main to the national issues.

Clara Indians held at Nambé, in the northern part of Santa Fe county. Both spoke in Spanish and used no interpreter. Bursum continued to advocate broad policies as to good roads and better schools, while Hernandez stuck in the main to the national issues.

Clara Indians held at Nambé, in the northern part of Santa Fe county. Both spoke in Spanish and used no interpreter. Bursum continued to advocate broad policies as to good roads and better schools, while Hernandez stuck in the main to the national issues.

Clara Indians held at Nambé, in the northern part of Santa Fe county. Both spoke in Spanish and used no interpreter. Bursum continued to advocate broad policies as to good roads and better schools, while Hernandez stuck in the main to the national issues.

Clara Indians held at Nambé, in the northern part of Santa Fe county. Both spoke in Spanish and used no interpreter. Bursum continued to advocate broad policies as to good roads and better schools, while Hernandez stuck in the main to the national issues.

Clara Indians held at Nambé, in the northern part of Santa Fe county. Both spoke in Spanish and used no interpreter. Bursum continued to advocate broad policies as to good roads and better schools, while Hernandez stuck in the main to the national issues.

Clara Indians held at Nambé, in the northern part of Santa Fe county. Both spoke in Spanish and used no interpreter. Bursum continued to advocate broad policies as to good roads and better schools, while Hernandez stuck in the main to the national issues.

Clara Indians held at Nambé, in the northern part of Santa Fe county. Both spoke in Spanish and used no interpreter. Bursum continued to advocate broad policies as to good roads and better schools, while Hernandez stuck in the main to the national issues.

Clara Indians held at Nambé, in the northern part of Santa Fe county. Both spoke in Spanish and used no interpreter. Bursum continued to advocate broad policies as to good roads and better schools, while Hernandez stuck in the main to the national issues.

Clara Indians held at Nambé, in the northern part of Santa Fe county. Both spoke in Spanish and used no interpreter. Bursum continued to advocate broad policies as to good roads and better schools, while Hernandez stuck in the main to the national issues.

Clara Indians held at Nambé, in the northern part of Santa Fe county. Both spoke in Spanish and used no interpreter. Bursum continued to advocate broad policies as to good roads and better schools, while Hernandez stuck in the main to the national issues.

Clara Indians held at Nambé, in the northern part of Santa Fe county. Both spoke in Spanish and used no interpreter. Bursum continued to advocate broad policies as to good roads and better schools, while Hernandez stuck in the main to the national issues.

Clara Indians held at Nambé, in the northern part of Santa Fe county. Both spoke in Spanish and used no interpreter. Bursum continued to advocate broad policies as to good roads and better schools, while Hernandez stuck in the main to the national issues.

SAYS SOCIALISM

German Soldiers Have Better Chance Than U. S. Babies, Avers Lecturer.

Walter Thomas Mills, socialist, of Oakland, Cal., last night urged the doctrine of his party as the panacea for modern economic ills, in a speech in Cleveland square advocating the candidacy of Allen L. Benson for the presidency. Mr. Mills declared that the cost of living is going higher every day and that this would be the case whether a republican or a democrat were in the white house. The only way to stop the upward trend of food prices, he said, is to put the socialist platform in effect, letting the men who produce the country's wealth have a hand in its disposal.

"Statistics show that it is safer to be a German soldier facing the bayonets of the allies than it is to be a baby born in the United States," Mr. Mills asserted. "Out of 100 soldiers fighting for the Kaiser an average of 24 are killed every year, in the United States out of every 100 babies born 25 die. And this is due to our barbarous economic conditions, which socialism would correct."

Five Months of Illness.

"We tell you that the average laborer, and yet it is a fact that the average laborer in this country works only seven months a year and must spend the other five months looking for a job. Our marriage conditions are so unstable that no hope of success is offered the men and women who take this vital step."

"Our factory conditions have become such a menace that the very life of the nation is threatened. Out of every six men who have applied to come to the border with the troops, five have been rejected. This is directly due to the unwholesome, deteriorating influence of our factory system."

30 Days From Breadlines.

"Labor in the United States is living within 30 days of the bread line. Our working men are put like our bankers. They can't live in the future on what they have earned in the past. We have a tradition of immense respect for our banks and our bankers. But do they produce any wealth or safeguard any of our resources? No. A bank is never started until there is something that a chattel mortgage can be taken on."

"Would the railroads stop running if Mr. Morgan went over to Europe for a little pleasure trip now? And yet when the railroads stop a month or two, there is a public calamity."

"It is not only in the factory towns that the menace to civilization has become alarming. You will find the same conditions in your own fair land. It is a curious fact that in those places where God has given his treasures most richly, there are more miserably exploited for the benefit of capital."

Says Texas Is Unfair.

"Texas can hardly be equalled in unfair labor conditions. I could give you many when your cotton growers needed financial aid in marketing their crops and in holding out for a resumption of normal conditions, the government refused to help them, but loaned $1,000,000 to the cotton growers of New York city to enable them to finance the Texas who grew the cotton."

"Socialism eventually will cure these ills, just as it has been curing in Europe, so has the movement been spreading in America. We are now electing 12 members of congress in November, and some day we'll elect a socialist president."

A MEDICINE

Conductive

TO BETTER HEALTH

HOSTETTER'S

Stomach

Bitters

Try a bottle for Poor Digestion or

Liver Disorders.

Try a bottle for Poor Digestion or

Liver Disorders.

Try a bottle for Poor Digestion or

Liver Disorders.

NEED OF NATION

ago of 24 are killed every year, in the United States out of every 100 babies born 25 die. And this is due to our barbarous economic conditions, which socialism would correct."

Five Months of Illness.

"We tell you that the average laborer, and yet it is a fact that the average laborer in this country works only seven months a year and must spend the other five months looking for a job. Our marriage conditions are so unstable that no hope of success is offered the men and women who take this vital step."

"Our factory conditions have become such a menace that the very life of the nation is threatened. Out of every six men who have applied to come to the border with the troops, five have been rejected. This is directly due to the unwholesome, deteriorating influence of our factory system."

30 Days From Breadlines.

"Labor in the United States is living within 30 days of the bread line. Our working men are put like our bankers. They can't live in the future on what they have earned in the past. We have a tradition of immense respect for our banks and our bankers. But do they produce any wealth or safeguard any of our resources? No. A bank is never started until there is something that a chattel mortgage can be taken on."

"Would the railroads stop running if Mr. Morgan went over to Europe for a little pleasure trip now? And yet when the railroads stop a month or two, there is a public calamity."

"It is not only in the factory towns that the menace to civilization has become alarming. You will find the same conditions in your own fair land. It is a curious fact that in those places where God has given his treasures most richly, there are more miserably exploited for the benefit of capital."

Says Texas Is Unfair.

"Texas can hardly be equalled in unfair labor conditions. I could give you many when your cotton growers needed financial aid in marketing their crops and in holding out for a resumption of normal conditions, the government refused to help them, but loaned $1,000,000 to the cotton growers of New York city to enable them to finance the Texas who grew the cotton."

"Socialism eventually will cure these ills, just as it has been curing in Europe, so has the movement been spreading in America. We are now electing 12 members of congress in November, and some day we'll elect a socialist president."